

2017: It Was a Very Good Year

January: Stevenson Dam History Program Filled Riverside Firehouse to Capacity.

March: Daily Facebook Features for Women's History Month

April: 2nd Annual Fiber Fest Celebrated Oxford's Agricultural History, Spinning and Weaving and the Merino Sheep Industry.

May: Tour of St. Peter's and Congregational Cemetery

Featured Historic Oxford Citizens.

June: 5th Annual Flea Market

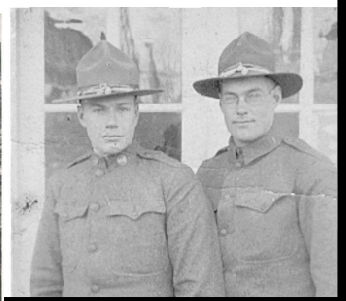

June: Adeline Gray 75th Anniversary of the Historic Leap Proving Nylon Parachute Safe for WWII Use.

Programs for Public and in Oxford Schools.

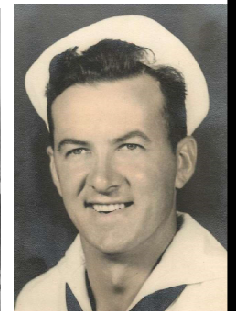

August: Peach Festival Features Oxford a Century Ago: WWII, the Construction of the Stevenson Dam and the Life on the Homefront

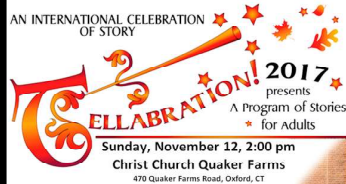

October: Girl Scouts Visit for Fiber Activities

November: Facebook Features to Honor 100+ Oxford Veterans

November Tellabration:

Story Telling Event with Friends of the Library in Oxford.

December: Holiday Open Houses

Society Publishes Historic Buildings of Oxford Past and Present

Society's newest book now complete and available for $25. Purchases can be made at Historical Society Open Houses, first and third Sundays from 2 to 4 p.m., or at the Town Clerk's office during regular office hours at the Town Hall.

Historic Buildings of Oxford
Past and Present

Oxford Historical Society
Oxford, Connecticut

THROUGHOUT THE YEAR:

- Preservation of the Twitchell-Rowland Homestead.
- Continued work on the Jensen Farm Barn Loom.
- Open regularly for visits at Homestead - 1st & 3rd Sundays, 2-4 p.m., except for holidays.
- Continued to collect artifacts on Oxford history, assist researchers.

Follow us on Facebook: @OxfordHistorical
Become a Member: http://www.oxford-historical-society.org/2018_Membership-form.pdf

